

Ethan Cartwright

Ethan Cartwright is the Staff Attorney for Pam Bassel Standing Chapter 13 Trustee for the Fort Worth Division of the Northern District of Texas. Prior to serving as Staff Attorney, Mr. Cartwright was the Lead Litigation Attorney and Litigation Team Manager at The Allen Firm, P.C. in Stephenville, Texas where in addition to creditor and debtor bankruptcy, his varied litigation practice included bench trials, jury trials, and appeals in areas of law including collections, torts, employment law, and even family law. Before joining The Allen Firm, Mr. Cartwright primarily practiced debtor bankruptcy at Higgins & Associates, P.C. During his time there, he was voted a top bankruptcy attorney in Fort Worth Magazine.

Mr. Cartwright graduated from Tarleton State University in 2005 with a Bachelor's of Science in Political Science. While there, he was a founding member and Student Organizational Forum Representative for the Political Science Association and earned the Long Academic Scholarship. Following undergraduate studies, Mr. Cartwright earned an Academic Merit Scholarship and graduated from Texas Wesleyan School of Law in 2008. While there, he also served as a Staff Member and Associate Editor for the Law Review and performed hours of pro bono work for Volunteer Income Tax Assistance. He completed his education with a LLM in Taxation from the University of Denver's Sturm School of Law where he was also awarded an academic scholarship and dedicated many hours to the University of Denver's Low Income Taxpayer Clinic.