

IN THE UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF TEXAS

IN THE MATTER OF §
§
PROCEDURES FOR COMPLEX § GENERAL ORDER NO. 2002-05
CHAPTER 11 CASES §
§

ORDER REGARDING PROCEDURES FOR COMPLEX CHAPTER 11 CASES

By General Order 00-6 entered December 21, 2000, the court adopted procedures for complex Chapter 11 cases. The order provided that the court would reevaluate the procedures in the last quarter of 2002. Upon consideration of the recommendations of members of the bar of the Northern District of Texas, the court has determined that the procedures should continue to be effective. Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that General Order 00-6 adopting and implementing procedures for complex cases shall continue to apply to Chapter 11 cases.

The court has authorized the Chief Bankruptcy Judge of the district to enter this order on behalf of the court.

Signed this 22nd day of November, 2002.

/s/ Steven A. Felsenthal
Steven A. Felsenthal, Chief
United States Bankruptcy Judge