REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

TO HON. JOHN MCBRYDE,
UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT JUDGE:

Comes now the undersigned bankruptcy judge and makes this report and recommendation respecting the Plaintiffs' Motion for Withdrawal of the Reference Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) (the "Motion"). [Adversary Docket No. 6]. The Motion was filed by Plaintiffs¹ seeking withdrawal of the reference as to the above-captioned adversary proceeding (the "Adversary")². In support of the Motion Plaintiffs filed Plaintiffs' Brief in Support of their Motion for Withdrawal of the Reference Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) ("Plaintiffs' Brief"). [Adversary Docket No. 7]. In response to the Motion and Plaintiffs' Brief, Pilgrim's Pride Corporation ("Defendant") filed Pilgrim's Pride Corporation's Response in Opposition to Plaintiffs' Motion for Withdrawal of the Reference (the "Response"). [Adversary Docket No. 19]. I conducted a status conference on the Motion and Response on July 29, 2009 (the "Status Conference"). At the Status Conference I heard argument from counsel for Plaintiffs and counsel for Defendant.

Background

Defendant filed for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code (the "Code")³ on December 1, 2008. Defendant remains in possession of its property and operation of its business as provided by sections 1107(a) and 1108 of the Code. Defendant is a producer of chicken products, being one of the largest chicken integrators⁴ in the world.

¹ The term "Plaintiffs" as used herein shall refer to the numerous plaintiffs named in the original complaint filed in the Adversary.

² The Adversary is related to City of Clinton, Arkansas v. Pilgrim's Pride Corp., Adv. No. 09-04222. A motion for withdrawal of the reference has been filed in the latter case as well.

The Adversary was filed on June 1, 2009. Plaintiffs are growers that have serviced various of Defendant's production facilities. Growers receive baby chicks from Defendant and raise the birds until they are ready for slaughter. In the Adversary Plaintiffs make various claims including that Defendant, in its dealings with them and generally, has violated various provisions the Packers and Stockyard Act (the "PSA").⁵

A scheduling order has been entered in the Adversary and is attached hereto. As noted above, the Response was filed in opposition to the Motion and Plaintiffs' Brief. The parties are currently not ready for trial. No party has sought to stay the Adversary pending the District Court's decision on the Motion. There is currently pending a motion to dismiss the Adversary filed by Defendants (the "MTD"). Plaintiffs have demanded that the Adversary be tried to a jury and have averred that they do not consent to the bankruptcy court conducting that jury trial or entering judgment in the Adversary.

In addition to the Adversary, at least some of Plaintiffs have filed proofs of claim (each a "POC") in the underlying bankruptcy case. See Code § 501. The POCs are not themselves a part of the Adversary. Plaintiffs have not asked to have the reference withdrawn as to the POCs. However, the claims asserted by the POCs appear to be the same as those asserted in the Adversary. Disposition of the Adversary thus will liquidate the amount (if any) of the POCs. Withdrawal of the reference also is not sought as to the tangential issue of Plaintiffs' counsel's compliance with FED. R. BANKR. P. 2019 that has been raised by Defendant's motion.⁶

Recommendation

⁶ During a hearing held on August 4, 2009, the issues arising under Rule 2019 were disposed of by agreement.

After reviewing the pleadings and conducting the Status Conference, I recommend that the Motion be granted and the reference be withdrawn as to the Adversary. First, mandatory withdrawal of the reference is sought under 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) on the basis that disposition of the Adversary requires construction of both the Code and the PSA.⁷ Although Defendant contends in the Response that construction of the PSA is a straightforward matter and thus mandatory withdrawal is not required (see Sibarium v. NCNB Texas Nat'l Bank, 107 B.R. 108, 111 (N.D. Tex. 1989)), I concur with Plaintiffs that the decision of a panel of the Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit⁸ that applies provisions of the PSA differently than has been the case in other Circuits demonstrate enough uncertainty concerning construction of the PSA that consideration of the Adversary must properly be by an Article III court.⁹

I further recommend that withdrawal of the reference be immediate and with respect to all proceedings in the Adversary. Disposition of the MTD is likely to require interpretation of the PSA – as will any other dispositive motions. Even discovery issues may require determinations of relevance that would necessitate parsing the PSA. For all these reasons, I

⁷ 28 U.S.C. § 157(d) provides:

(d) The district court may withdraw, in whole or in part, any case or proceeding referred under this section, on its own motion or on timely motion of any party, for cause shown. The district court shall, on timely motion of a party, so withdraw a proceeding if the court determines that resolution of the proceeding requires consideration of both title 11 and other laws of the United States regulating organizations or activities affecting interstate commerce. (Emphasis added).

There is no dispute that the PSA is a law “regulating organizations or activities affecting interstate commerce.”

⁸ See Wheeler, et al, v. Pilgrim's Pride Corp., 2009 U.S. App. LEXIS 16737 (5th Cir. Tex. July 27, 2009). Although the Court of Appeals has granted Defendant's request that the panel's decision be reheard en banc, I believe the panel's decision still supports Plaintiffs' contention that mandatory withdrawal is proper.

⁹ I also believe, even if mandatory withdrawal were not called for, permissive withdrawal of the reference is appropriate under Mirant Corp. v. The Southern Co., 337 B.R. 107 (N.D. Tex. 2006).

respectfully recommend that the District Court assume jurisdiction for all purposes over the Adversary.

As to matters related to the Adversary – consideration of any procedural defects in the POCs, for example – I do not believe withdrawal of the reference is necessary or appropriate, at least at this juncture. No party has requested that the reference with regard to issues with the POCs be withdrawn and I believe it is preferable that any issues pertaining to the POCs, other than the merits of the claims pursued in the Adversary, remain before the bankruptcy court.

Both because the disposition of the Adversary may affect the progress of Defendant's reorganization¹⁰ and to ensure against forum shopping,¹¹ I recommend that the District Court for the Northern District of Texas retain venue of the Adversary once (and if) the reference is withdrawn.

SIGNED this the 6th day of August, 2009.

Respectfully Submitted,

/s/ D. Michael Lynn

¹⁰ Defendant expects to confirm a plan of reorganization before the end of 2009. Coordination of the confirmation process with trial of the Adversary would be facilitated if the Adversary remained here.

¹¹ As noted by Defendant, although a case raising parallel issues is pending (though stayed pursuant to Code § 362(a)(1)) in the Eastern District of Texas, the extent of the proceedings before that court have not been such as to favor transfer there to advance judicial economy. It does not appear on the record that the Eastern District of Texas is more convenient for Plaintiffs as a group than the Northern District of Texas; rather, as argued by Defendant, Plaintiffs may be seeking transfer because they expect more favorable treatment in the former district.

ORDER REGARDING ADVERSARY PROCEEDINGS TRIAL SETTING AND ALTERNATIVE SCHEDULING ORDER

An adversary complaint is set for trial routinely at the time of its filing. Special settings or pretrial conferences may be scheduled by contacting the appropriate Courtroom Deputy.

TRIAL is set before the Honorable D. Michael Lynn at Room 128, US Courthouse, 501 W. Tenth Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102 the month of December, 2009. Docket call for this trial will be held on November 23, 2009 at 9:00 A.M. at Room 128, US Courthouse, 501 W. Tenth Street, Fort Worth, TX 76102. A pretrial conference shall be scheduled by the parties at least seven (7) calendar days prior to trial docket call in a complex adversary proceeding if the parties anticipate that trial will exceed one day or if there are preliminary matters that should be addressed by the Court prior to the commencement of trial.

PART I: INSTRUCTIONS

1. Plaintiff is responsible for ensuring that proper service is provided to each defendant. The Clerk shall issue one original summons, which shall be conformed by the plaintiff for service on multiple defendants. Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7004(e) requires you to serve the fully completed SUMMONS form and a copy of the COMPLAINT on each defendant within ten (10) days of issuance. In addition, the Court also directs that this ORDER be served with the SUMMONS and COMPLAINT.
2. Plaintiff shall file a RETURN on the SUMMONS with a CERTIFICATE OF SERVICE that provides the name and address of each party served and the manner of service.
3. If a trial setting is passed for settlement at trial docket call and no written request is filed to retain the case on the Court's docket, an automatic Dismissal Without Prejudice shall be entered on or after four (4) weeks. The Court's Trial Calendar is available on the court's web site at www.txnb.uscourts.gov.

PART II: GENERAL PROVISIONS GOVERNING DISCOVERY

1. Unless otherwise ordered by the Court, the disclosures required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a) shall be made within ten (10) days of the entry of a scheduling order, including the Alternative Scheduling Order contained in Part III below (which shall become effective on the forty-sixth day following the entry of this Order).
2. Unless the parties agree or the Court orders otherwise, Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7026(f) requires that parties shall confer to consider the nature and basis of their claims and defenses and the possibilities for a prompt settlement or resolution of the case, to make or arrange for the disclosures required by Federal Bankruptcy Rule 7026(a)(1), to develop a proposed discovery plan, and to submit a proposed scheduling order. The parties shall confer with each other regarding these matters within thirty (30) days of the service of the Summons unless the Court orders otherwise.
3. During such conference, the parties may agree to waive the requirement of submitting their own proposed scheduling order and may follow the terms and deadlines contained in the Alternative Scheduling Order set forth in Part III below (the "Alternative Scheduling Order"). If the parties do not submit a proposed scheduling order or do not schedule a status conference with the Court to discuss the provisions and deadlines of a scheduling order within forty-five days of the filing of this adversary proceeding, then the parties are deemed to have consented to the terms of the Alternative Scheduling Order.

PART III: ALTERNATIVE SCHEDULING ORDER

The Court directs compliance with the following schedule:

1. Discovery must be completed forty-five (45) days prior to Docket Call. The names and addresses of experts must be exchanged sixty (60) days prior to Docket Call.
2. A Joint Pretrial Order in compliance with Local District Court Rule 16.4 shall be filed, served, and uploaded for Court entry seven (7) days prior to Docket Call. All counsel (or a pro se party) are responsible for preparing the Joint Pretrial Order, which shall contain the following: (a) a summary of the claims and defenses of each party; (b) a statement of stipulated facts; (c) a list of the contested issues of fact; (d) a list of contested issues of law; (e) an estimate of the length of trial; (f) a list of additional matters which would aid in the disposition of the case; and (g) the signature of each attorney (or pro se party).
3. Each exhibit shall be marked with an exhibit label. Except for impeachment documents, all exhibits, along with a list of witnesses to be called, shall be exchanged with opposing counsel (or pro se party) fifteen (15) days prior to Docket Call. Each party shall also file a list of exhibits and witnesses fifteen (15) days prior to Docket Call. All exhibits not objected to in writing by Docket Call shall be admitted into evidence at trial without further proof, except for objections to relevance. Written objections to exhibits will be taken up either at the beginning or during the course of the actual trial or at any pretrial conference.
4. Written Proposed Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law shall be filed seven (7) days prior to Docket Call. Trial briefs shall be filed addressing contested issues of law seven (7) days prior to Docket Call.
5. Unless otherwise directed by the Presiding Judge, all dispositive motions must be heard no later than fifteen (15) days prior to Docket Call. Accordingly, all dispositive motions must be filed no later than forty-five (45) days prior to Docket Call, unless the Court modifies this deadline.
6. All parties and counsel must certify to full compliance with this Order at Docket Call. If a resetting is allowed by the Court, the plaintiff or plaintiff's attorney shall notify all other parties and shall file with the Clerk a certificate of service indicating the manner, date, and to whom notice was given.
7. If the case is reset, all the deadlines in Part III nos. 1 through 5 will be shifted to the newly scheduled Docket Call date in the absence of a contrary Court order.
8. Sanctions may be imposed for failure to comply with this Order.
